Attention is called to the announcements of Attorneys F. H. Moore and G. W. Skaggs as candidates for the Democratic nomination for County Attorney. They are both true and active Democrats, and are well known in all parts of the county.

Mr. John N. Peters has recently put a fine new planer in connection with a saw mill at Fort Gay, just across the river from this place, and is prepared to fill orders promptly for any kind of planed lumber. He is also giving attention to contracting and building.

Insomnia is fearfully on the increase. The rush and excitement of modern life so tax the nervous system that multitudes of people are deprived of good and sufficient sleep, with ruinous consequences to the nerves. Remember, Ayer's Sarsaparilla makes the weak strong.

Mr. Samuel Lowe, of Blaine, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Jailor, as may be seen by reference to our announcement column. He is in every way a good man, a sound Democrat, and is well liked by all who know him. He is at present postmaster at Blaine.

Candidates should get their announcements in the News right away, so the people may know who it is they must choose between. The News goes into every neighborhood in the county and those who do not take it borrow it. It is safe to say that four thousand persons in Lawrence county read it every week.

The announcement of Mr. J. J. Mann for the Democratic nomination for County Surveyor appears in this issue. Having been a teacher in Lawrence county schools for several years Mr. Mann is known to many of the people of the county to a much greater number by reputation than by personal acquaintance, however. He is well educated and knows engineering and surveying both theoretically and practically. He was once assistant city engineer of his native city, Holyoke, Mass.

Sandy River Appropriation.

The question of whether or not the government work at this place will be resumed this season is about the most important problem in local circles; therefore, while in Washington last week we endeavored to find how the matter stood. We learned enough to show that Big Sandy has fared along with the best of them this year, even though the $25,000 is not sufficient to carry the work to a point at which it can well be laid aside until next season for final completion.

In the first place the U. S. Engineers placed all estimates at a low figure, realizing that the appropriations would necessarily be light this year. Then it will be remembered that the Rivers and Harbors Committee made an average cut of about fifty per cent. in the estimates submitted by the Engineers. Big Sandy, however, was reported by the committee with the full amount asked by the Engineers. This was more liberal treatment than was accorded any other Kentucky river. Representative Paynter has long been a close friend to Chairman Blanchard, of the Rivers and Harbors Committee, and it was through his influence that the full amount was reported. We understand that Mr. Paynter made a strong effort for a larger appropriation before the committee. Failing in that he is now laboring in the House for an amendment appropriating an additional $12,000 necessary to continue the work this season. But the clamor from Representatives from all parts of the country for such amendments is so great that, to be frank about it, there does not seem to be much room to hope for the Big Sandy amendment. We hope the prospects are not really so gloomy as they appeared to an inexperienced observer, but a short time will tell the tale.

LATER—The amendment providing for the increase in the appropriation was lost by a few votes in the House, but the Courier-Journal says:

Representative Paynter will renew his fight for the increase in the appropriation for the Big Sandy in the Senate. He says the Senate will no doubt amend the Rivers and Harbors Bill, and that he will now bring to bear all the influence he can in the Senate to have them adopt his amendment, which was beaten by a few votes in the House. He will leave no stone unturned to get that $10,000 appropriation.

George Fannin and A. J. Lawson came to town Wednesday to procure a license for the marriage of the latter to the former sister. They were in high spirits, especially after imbibing a goodly quantity of liquor and on their way out of town they had a horse race down the "lane." They were pursued by officers, and thanks to the fact that they were thrown from their horses near Jas. Lackey's, Fannin was caught. He was taken at once before the Police Judge and confessed to drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and it cost him about $9. Lawson escaped with his license and was doubtless on hand to play the leading part in the wedding that evening. Fannin followed as soon as he got out of court. The grand jury will look into the offense of racing.

Bessie H. Bedloe, Burlington, Vt., had a disease of the scalp, causing her hair to become very harsh and dry, and to fall so freely that she scarcely dared to comb it. Ayer's Hair Vigor gave her a healthy scalp, removed the dandruff, and made the hair thick and glossy.

OXFORD.

AS A CLEANSER of the blood, nothing answers as clean as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It purifies the blood as well as enriches it. The truth is, an emulsion of cod liver oil is good for building up fat—no doubt about it. But—ugh! a weak stomach loathes it.

Fortunately, there's a time-builder, that's even better for making healthy flesh. Pleasant in taste, it's in a nutshell. That's the "Discovery." It goes to work in the right way, by regulating, cleansing, and repairing all the organs of the body.

When the organs of disease are round about us we do not all get them. Why? Some of us are in too good a condition. The germ of Consumption, Grippe, Malaria, and all the infectious diseases, pass by if you are strong to resist their attack. Bander your self germ-proof by putting your blood and liver in a healthy state.

In all blood taints and diseases, if the "Discovery" fails to benefit or cure, your money is returned.

No other medicine of its kind can be sold so.

Highest of all in Leavening.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

PRIMARY ELECTION.

Democrats Will Nominate County Officers June 16.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Lawrence county met last Saturday forenoon for the purpose of deciding upon a plan for making nominations for county officers. It was the fullest county committee meeting held for years, every precinct being represented, and most of them by more than one committeeman. This is very encouraging, but no more so than the spirit displayed by every member present to act unanimously and for the best. After a lengthy consideration of all the proposed methods of choosing a ticket the committee adjourned to meet again in the afternoon. After the Congressional convention was over the committee again met and called in all the candidates present—and nearly all were there. The views and wishes of all the candidates were heard, and the result showed the greatest number to be in favor of a primary election. The committee again took up the matter and decided to hold a primary election. The conclusion was reached that under the restrictions of the new law a primary election is the fairest to all candidates and is the best means of getting the voice of the party as to who its standard bearers shall be. In other words, it was decided to be the most Democratic idea—which is always to allow the people to rule. Time 9th was announced as the time for holding the election, but a subsequent investigation showed that the law required forty days' public notice to be given and this made it necessary to change the date to Saturday, June 16th. Polls will be opened from seven a. m. until four p. m., at the regular voting places in the various precincts of the county. Now, if the spirit which prevailed in the committee room will only pervade the candidates, every thing will be well. The canvases should be kept free from strife. The fact is, there should be no canvases. The greatest degree of harmony would result from a primary before which there had been no "hustling" for votes. To simply make your candidacy known and let the people do the rest would be the most commendable and profitable plan. The candidates for County Attorney have very sensibly agreed upon this plan, as will be seen by their card in this issue. Will not the others follow their example?

To the Voters of Lawrence County:

Believing as I do that the office should seek the man and not the man the office, and believing that there ought to be no confusion or dissension in the Democratic ranks, my opponent Green Skaggs and myself have agreed to make no canvases before the primary election, so as to allow each voter to go to the polls unbiassed and say who shall make the race for County Attorney. If I am the one chosen I assure you that after I am nominated there shall be no lack of energy or work on my part to win, and I am not afraid but I can win it.

Yours,

TIP MOORE.

Election Laws.

Most every one is now acquainted with the stringency of Kentucky election laws as regards the use of money, whiskey or other like means of influence upon voters. Remember that the law applies to primary elections exactly the same as to general elections. It is to be hoped that no candidate for a Democratic nomination has any disposition to resort to any such means, but the matter is mentioned for the good of any candidates or friends of candidates who may grow unduly enthusiastic in the race.

DWALE.

Homer, the little son of T. J. Allen, came near being drowned last week while fishing. His rescue was made by Sam Hatcher and Harry Weddington.

Hon. Frank Hopkins, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Knox, of Cincinnati, were here last week, making plans and specifications for the erection of a bridge across Beaver Creek, near the mouth, which, when completed, will be of great service to the public at large.

Rev. Laferty preached an eloquent sermon at the Beaver school house Wednesday night.

Hon. J. M. Kendall accompanied by Wm. Mayo, of Johnson county, was here on his return from Hindman, Ky. Joe is a Democratic candidate for Congress in the Tenth district. The outlook for his nomination is good. Mr. Kendall made a good Representative in the Fifty-second Congress. May his voice be heard in the Fifty-fourth.

J. Will Hatcher has been at Prestonsburg a few days on business.

News has reached here that Jas. Rutecher, a well known farmer of this county, who moved to Fleming county a short time ago, was found dead on his farm May 3. We are sorry to hear of his death and deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

There was a good attendance at the box supper held at the Davidson school-house Saturday night. The cakes were awarded to Lena Welch and Trinnie Fairchild. The proceeds amounted to about twenty dollars, which goes to the minister.

Samuel Hatcher, wife and children went to Prestonsburg Saturday and returned Monday.

The people of this community were made sad at the death of Mrs. Dollie Harris. She departed this life May 3, 1894. Mrs. Harris was a daughter of the well known J. K. Leslie, of this county. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved husband, parents and the host of friends who mourn her loss.

R. O. Y.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

The Republicans of Martin county have nominated a ticket by primary election.

It is reported that the Logan county, W. Va., grand jury has returned 200 indictments and adjourned.

The Twelve Pole Telegraph and Telephone Company has been organized for the purpose of erecting a telephone line on Twelve Pole.

Specimens of West Virginia gold ore found on Blue Creek, above Charleston, showed up an assay $2.41 worth of gold, and 19 cents of silver to the ton.

Irvin Patrick was recently shot and killed by his brother-in-law Milton Perkins in Magoffin county. It was claimed to be accidental, but whisky was at the bottom of it.

The Boyd county grand jury returned 76 indictments. Nearly every merchant in town who sells cigarettes was indicted for selling cigarettes to boys under 18 years of age.

Ferguson and Rice, who stole a large amount of meat near the mouth of White's creek recently, have been captured and the latter has received a two years' sentence in the penitentiary.

John McFarland, colored, has been sentenced to hang in McDowell Co., W. Va., on July 20, for the murder of George Andrews, colored, last August. The dispute which brought about the killing involved the sum of seventy-five cents.

In a battle the head of Tug river, in West Virginia, Friday, William L. Freeman, a member of the West Virginia Legislature, was killed and his brother fatally wounded by Taylor Herman. The little affair was in settlement of a twelve-year-old boundary-line dispute.

"H. Herrmann the New York furniture manufacturer, was here the latter part of last week, looking out a suitable site upon which to erect a saw mill and furniture factory. Mr. Herrmann has returned to his home, but we failed to ascertain the result of his search, but hope that he will conclude to locate here."—Farmville Times.

Three or four toughs went into the station at Nolan, W. Va., a few nights ago and attacked the operator. They beat him up severely, and drove him nearly off. Finally he shot one of the men severely, causing instant death. An extra train happened to be standing at the station, and the operator telegraphed for permission to use it, and in that way escaped.

Up at Ceredo, W. Va., last Saturday night, a woman who was under arrest in the hands of a lot of Deputy U. S. Marshals on a charge of moonshining, together with a party of 25 or more others, took advantage of a moment's lack of watchfulness on the part of her guard, and escaped to the platform of the N. and W. train on which they were being brought in. As the train slowed up to round this curve near the Ceredo stopping place she jumped off, escaping injury, and later took another train bound for her mountain home, without being recaptured.—Ashland Daily News.

This is from the Winchester Democrat and we do not believe it is true: "The Prowler has heard of many queer decisions made by magistrates, but a verdict recently rendered by a Martin county weaver of the magisterial ermine is entitled to the blue ribbon. A man was recently arrested in that county on the charge of horse stealing. The case was tried before a country magistrate, who, after hearing the testimony, rendered a verdict that the accused should be hung! The decision completely took the wind out of the old lawyer, who was defending the prisoner, and it was only by a supreme effort on his part that he succeeded in carrying the case to the proper tribunal."

BUCHANAN.

Lizzie Hatten has been quite ill for some time, but is now rapidly improving.

Mrs. Chas. Warren and daughter Lizzie, were in Catlettsburg shopping Monday and Tuesday.

John Hazlett, of East Fork, was in our city Wednesday, attending the sale.

Blanch Moore gave a most delightful party Tuesday evening, in honor of her cousin, Miss Davenport, of Ashland Ky. The present were, Emma Wright, Beatrice Finney, Nannie Finney, Lou Van Horn, Deille Van Horn, Miss Chapman and Miss Riddle, and Messrs. James Hutchinson, Liss Curnutte and Frank Wallace. So nicely were we entertained, printers ink would fail to describe it.

We hope that Miss Davenport will be the guest of Miss Moore again in the near future.

Of a Church of England minister cured of a distressing rash, by Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Mr. RICHARD BRICKS, the well-known Druggist, 207 McGill St., Montreal, P. Q., says:

I have sold Ayer's Family Medicines for 40 years, and have heard nothing but good said of them. I know of many performed by Ayer's Sarsaparilla, one in particular being that of a little daughter of a Church of England minister. The child was literally covered from head to foot with a red and exceedingly troublesome rash, from which she had suffered for two or three years, in spite of the best medical treatment available. Her father was in great distress about the case, and at my recommendation, at last began to administer Ayer's Sarsaparilla, two bottles of which effected a complete cure, much to her relief and her father's delight. I am sure, were he here to-day, he would testify in the strongest terms as to the merits of
